CORAM : R.M.S.KHANDEPARKAR, J

DATED : 7TH MARCH, 2007

P.C.

1. On the pronouncement of the order, the learned advocate appearing for the petitioner in all the above four petitions requested for stay of the order passed today. The same is objected to by the learned advocate for the respondents.

2. By the order passed today, I have merely confirmed the interim order which has been passed by the learned Industrial Tribunal. No fresh executable order has been passed so as to grant stay as such in the matters. On this ground alone, the request for stay of the order passed today is rejected. Even otherwise, stay of the impugned order would virtually result in nullifying the entire effect of the interim order. Order accordingly.
